PERSONAL PROJECTS

Netflix-Clone (01/2022 - 01/2022)

- While working on netflix I am so excited to play with APIs and I learned how to fetch data from APIs.

Food Order-Website (05/2023 - 05/2023)

- It was a great Experience while dealing with database, fetching data from database and using sessions .Throughout this project my skills are improved.

Facial Expression Detection Music-Player (02/2023 - 02/2023)

- It was quite challenging for me to make music player. While doing it I got stucked between many things,which i learned and correct it by learning from some youtube channel and other website.

X Zero game (12/2021 - 01/2022)

- I am always excited to play my own game so I tried to programmed small game. I personally enjoy playing it.

Real-Time Clock (12/2021 - 01/2022)

- It was difficult for me to find how many time it take to cover 360deg(60 second). Here I learn some thing new such as animation and all.

V-tech (01/2022 - 02/2022)

- V-Tech is my personal portfolio website that showcases my web applications and projects. It serves as a central hub where I present my work to potential clients, employers, or anyone interested in exploring my projects. While some of the projects are fully hosted on the website.
